

Nurturing Jewish Life Behind Closed Doors-- Two Women's Experiences

Jewish Luck : a True Story of Friendship,

Deception and Risky Business by sisters Meryll Page and Leslie Adler recounts the intertwined stories of two women, Vera and Alla, who — in their struggles against the anti-Semitism and patriarchy of the Soviet regime and the rebranded “New” Russia— succeed by creating their own luck. Find out what connected Vera and Alla to their Jewishness.

Jewish Luck invites readers to inhabit the lives of two extraordinary, resilient, and headstrong women as they fight to establish themselves in a time and place where women, Jews, and capitalism were disparaged.

Meet Author Meryll Page.

Listen to her fascinating reflections on this timely book.

Wednesday, May 7, 2014. 11:00 am to Noon.

No Charge.

Please RSVP to the Bureau of Jewish Education.

Jewished@bjephoenix.org 480.634.8050 www.bjephoenix.org

Sponsored by and held at the Bureau of Jewish Education in the Ina Levine Jewish Community Campus. 12701 N. Scottsdale Rd. Scottsdale, AZ.